

YOUTH WORKSHOPS

DANCE KALEIDOSCOPE

Come and experience a kaleidoscope of new dance moves at this fun-filled workshop. Professional dancers from the modern dance company Dance Kaleidoscope are in town all week, getting ready for an amazing show in the Kuss Auditorium Saturday night. They're spending lots of time with Project Jericho - and here's your chance to meet them, learn some moves... and get to dance on the Kuss Stage yourself! (you can find out more about this dance company at www.dancekal.org)

There are two separate workshops:

Ages 8-14: Wednesday, January 28 4:00-5:30pm

Clark State Performing Arts Center, Kuss Stage (enter the doors on the Limestone St. side of the building, across from the YMCA - we'll meet you in the lobby!)

Ages 14-17 and advanced dancers: Thursday, January 29 4:00-6:00pm

Clark State Performing Arts Center, Kuss Stage (enter the doors on the Limestone St. side of the building, across from the YMCA - we'll meet you in the lobby!)

Space is limited - call Project Jericho at 328-3869 to sign up!
